PERMANENT REMOVAL OF THE HAPF GROMMET FROM THE MILLENIUM, MANHATTAN, AND NOW ACADEMIC COLLECTIONS

Please note that we decided to remove the HAPF grommet from the Millennium and Manhattan collections this past October. This grommet has now been removed from the Academic collection as well. The standard replacement is the CAPF grommet.

This change is effective immediately, and it is no longer possible to order HAPF grommets. We therefore ask that you carefully review your projects involving this grommet with your account manager.

For more information about available inventory or any other matter, please contact us at 1-877-864-9323 during our office hours.

We thank you for your cooperation.
